

Sophie Hibburd

From: Michelle Johnston
Sent: Thursday, 12 September 2013 6:09 PM
To: Sophie Hibburd
Subject: Starter packs

I note with concern the RACPs suggestion that starter packs are somehow unethical. Physicians are not the ones who have to see patients in regional or remote areas on a Sun afternoon with shingies... I do! Starter packs are not for the benefit of the Dr and have a very important place in the management of our patients.

Please leave them out of any discussion on ethics and pharmaceutical companies.

Dr Michelle Johnston