

Summary of Health Consumer Organisations supported by Medicines Australia Member Companies

Company: Boehringer Ingelheim Pty Limited
For the Period: January 1 - December 31, 2023

Name of Health Consumer Organisation	Description of and/or purpose of support	Nature of support (monetary value or equivalent) or description of non-financial support
Cancer Council NSW	Through the Boehringer Ingelheim Australia 'Charity Partnership' program employees can participate in fundraising activities and monies raised are matched by the Company. An employee participated in a fundraising event and Boehringer Ingelheim was proud to support Cancer Council NSW through this initiative Biggest Morning Tea	The company contributed $1,278
Cancer Council NSW	Through the Boehringer Ingelheim Australia 'Charity Partnership' program employees can participate in fundraising activities and monies raised are matched by the Company. An employee participated in a fundraising event and Boehringer Ingelheim was proud to support Cancer Council NSW through this initiative 7 Bridges Walk	The company contributed $1193
Diabetes Australia	Boehringer Ingelheim has sponsored the Diabetes Australia "Take Diabetes 2 Heart" patient campaign which is focused on a range of patient and HCP activities that support patients with type 2 diabetes in recognizing their increased cardiovascular risk and discussing this with their HCP. The program also has tools for HCPs to support their type 2 diabetes patients.	The company contributed $30,000
FAST Australia	Through the Boehringer Ingelheim Australia 'Charity Partnership' program employees can participate in fundraising activities and monies raised are matched by the Company. An employee participated in a fundraising event and Boehringer Ingelheim was proud to support FAST Australia through this initiative Sydney Half Marathon	The company contributed $1,021
FAST Australia	Through the Boehringer Ingelheim Australia 'Charity Partnership' program employees can participate in fundraising activities and monies raised are matched by the Company. An employee participated in a fundraising event and Boehringer Ingelheim was proud to support FAST Australia through this initiative Move for a Cure	The company contributed $600

Name of Health Consumer Organisation	Description of and/or purpose of support	Nature of support (monetary value or equivalent) or description of non-financial support
Heart 4 Hearts	Boehringer Ingelheim were proud to support the Heart Failure Awareness campaign. The goal of Heart Failure Awareness Week is to reduce undiagnosed heart failure by raising awareness of the signs and symptoms of heart failure and improve diagnosis and patient outcomes through a supported educational program and patient resources developed by Hearts 4 Heart	The company contributed $40,000
Heart Of Australia	Boehringer Ingelheim Australia is proud to support the NextGen Medics student program to provide students with firsthand insights into health inequity in rural and remote Australia. The program shows the contribution they can make as a health professional working in a remote community.	The company contributed $200,000
Heart Of Australia	In Kind donation of 45 x MIR Spirometers and viral mouthpieces to support the diagnosis of respiratory diseases in rural and remote communities. Heart of Australia delivers specialist healthcare and diagnostic testing to rural, remote, and First Nations communities across Queensland via their fit-for-purpose Heart Trucks.	The company contributed devices and support to the value of $58,153
Kidney Health Australia	Boehringer Ingelheim was proud to support Kidney Health Australia through a sponsorship to develop patient support services and patient educational materials for those diagnosed with CKD.	The company contributed $50,000
Lung Foundation Australia	Boehringer Ingelheim was proud to sponsor the development of the Interstitial Lung Disease (ILD) program which includes; the support of the Pulmonary Fibrosis (PF) Awareness Month campaign, the PF Awareness Month webinar, ILD specific peer support services and consumer education materials for ILD patients and their carers.	The company contributed $74,700
Lung Foundation Australia	Boehringer Ingelheim was proud to support this Research Fellowship Grant. In this program, researchers (≤ 10 years post PhD) with a special interest in COPD can apply for grant funding starting from April 2022. The research projects focus on any aspect of identification, diagnosis, treatment, and support of people with COPD, with a particular emphasis on priority populations like Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders.	The company contributed $60,000

Name of Health Consumer Organisation	Description of and/or purpose of support	Nature of support (monetary value or equivalent) or description of non-financial support
Lung Foundation Australia	Boehringer Ingelheim was proud to sponsor the LFA / TSANZ ASM Dinner in March. LFA recognised the Boehringer COPD scholarship alumni and commemorate the 20th anniversary of the COPD-X Guidelines	The company contributed $10,000
Lung Foundation Australia	Boehringer Ingelheim was proud to support this travel grant for a physician to present the Lung Foundation's meta-analysis on the use of antifibrotic agents in idiopathic pulmonary fibrosis and progressive pulmonary fibrosis in an oral presentation at the American Thoracic Society meeting in Washington DC, United States of America, May 18-24th 2023	The company contributed $7,500
Lung Foundation Australia	Boehringer Ingelheim was proud to support LFA with a travel grant for the purposes of education and training - funding from BI to facilitate participation of the Lung Foundation Australia at the American Thoracic Society ASM, 19 to 23 May 2023	The company contributed $5,000
Lung Foundation Australia	Boehringer Ingelheim was proud to make a charitable donation to the Lung Foundation Australia, Shine a Light campaign to support the "Shine A Light on Lung Cancer" initiative	The company donated $5,000
Mental Illness Fellowship of Australia (MIFA)	Boehringer Ingelheim was proud to support MIFA in the planning, and facilitation of their Roundtable Meeting in Townsville in July 2024. In-kind support was provided in the form of 5 trained facilitators (Boehringer employees) to attend the event and support in the strategic planning for the workshop.	In Kind - provision of 5 facilitators (Boehringer employees)
MS Australia	Through the Boehringer Ingelheim Australia 'Charity Partnership' program employees can participate in fundraising activities and monies raised are matched by the Company. An employee participated in a fundraising event and Boehringer Ingelheim was proud to support MS Australia through this initiative The 2023 May 50k	The company contributed $942

Name of Health Consumer Organisation	Description of and/or purpose of support	Nature of support (monetary value or equivalent) or description of non-financial support
MS Australia	Through the Boehringer Ingelheim Australia 'Charity Partnership' program employees can participate in fundraising activities and monies raised are matched by the Company. An employee participated in a fundraising event and Boehringer Ingelheim was proud to support MS Australia through this initiative Sydney to the Gong Cycle	The company contributed $2000
NACCHO	Boehringer Ingelheim was proud to support NACCHO to receive a donation of medical education supplies and medical equipment, to support medical education (Donation) in the form of 50 x COPD 6 case finding devices and accompanying filters.	In-kind donation to support medical education on patient screening
National Stroke Foundation	Boehringer Ingelheim was proud to contribute towards the costs of 'The Cost of Stroke Report' commissioned by National Stroke Foundation to quantify the economic burden of stroke on the Australian community.	The company contributed $75,000
Rare Cancers Australia	Boehringer Ingelheim were proud to support a sponsorship of the RCA Rareification of Cancer Report – Phase 2. This report will contain expanded definitions of rare and rare subtypes of cancer and discuss the implications of this for the Australian health care system.	The company contributed $26,600
Ronald McDonald House Charities	Through the Boehringer Ingelheim Australia 'Charity Partnership' program employees can participate in fundraising activities and monies raised are matched by the Company. An employee participated in a fundraising event and Boehringer Ingelheim was proud to support Ronald McDonald House Charities through this initiative Swim for Sick kids	The company contributed $1,804
Small Steps 4 Hannah Foundation	Through the Boehringer Ingelheim Australia 'Charity Partnership' program employees can participate in fundraising activities and monies raised are matched by the Company. An employee participated in a fundraising event and Boehringer Ingelheim was proud to support Small Steps 4 Hannah Foundation through this initiative Dead Cow Gully Walk	The company contributed $2,000

Name of Health Consumer Organisation	Description of and/or purpose of support	Nature of support (monetary value or equivalent) or description of non-financial support
The Prince Charles Hospital Foundation (for the Common Good)	Boehringer Ingelheim was proud to support The Common Good through a sponsorship of The Long Kayak for Lungs 2 by Bill Van Nierop – an initiative where he will kayak 1400kms raising awareness for IPF and rare lung conditions and raise money for vital research.	The company contributed $15,000
White Coats Foundation	Boehringer Ingelheim was proud to sponsor the "Your Voice, Your Story" initiative (including community artwork submissions and a free webinar) to enhance community awareness of clinical trials and patient participation.	The company contributed $5,000